

LITURGICAL MUSIC PLANNER

MAY 3 – AUGUST 15, 2020 (YEAR A)

April 1, 2020

Dear Pastoral Minister:

We began preparing this edition of the Liturgical Music Planner at the end of February. At that point, we never anticipated that our current worship practices would be what they are today. Many of our parishes have needed to quickly learn how to foster digital community. It has been humbling to see so many of you take to this mission wholeheartedly.

As you know, music is an essential and lifegiving part of our worship experience. We hope that this planner supports the vital liturgical life of your community – regardless of whether this is a physical or virtual reality for your parish in this moment. To aid in your mission, we have made our entire music catalogue available for reprint and streaming through OneLicense, who is offering gratis licenses for coping communities. We encourage you to visit their website for more details if you are considering how to better serve your community with full heart and voice.

Finally, Liturgical Press has created a series of free resources to support the Church in praying together as we are apart. Please share any of these materials with your family, friends, or communities. Some of our offerings include downloadable editions of Celebrating the Eucharist and Misal del Pueblo, new resources for praying through Holy Week at Home, and a Spotify playlist including Psallite music for hope, consolation, and healing.

Our prayers are with you and your communities. May we continue to serve one another as Christ calls us.

Yours sincerely,

Shannon Chisholm, PhD
