

LITURGICAL MUSIC PLANNER
20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – THANKSGIVING DAY
AUGUST 16, 2020 – NOVEMBER 26, 2020

June 25, 2020

Dear Friends in Music Ministry,

We live in hope. This short phrase has been my unceasing mantra for the past few months. As we continue to grapple with the unprecedented pastoral realities we have experienced this year, we are called to live in the hope promised by Christ. This hope is not individualistic, nor is it grounded in fanfare and exultation. Instead, this hope is profoundly communal and rooted in the humility and vulnerability of self-gift.

Christ's example of self-gift shows us how to be bearers of this hope. We bear hope when we lower our own voices to listen to people whose voices might typically be ignored or forgotten. We bear hope when we name our participation in systems of sin and injustice. We bear hope when we recognize our own limitations and instead rely on the experiences and expertise of others. We bear hope when we celebrate liturgy, sent forth to be Christ for others.

Even so, living in hope is not always easy. If we are honest, we might even say that it is rather challenging. This is because continuing the work of the resurrection is not easy. The Scripture we encounter toward the end of Ordinary Time reminds us of this reality, as the followers of Jesus continue to ask questions and discern how this newfound relationship and experience invites them to live differently. We ask ourselves these same questions today.

As a Christian community we are called to support each other through this process. In a special way, Liturgical Press is proud to offer a number of resources to assist you and your community as we strive to share this hope in Christ. Please visit our website for more information about resources we have created especially for you, our trusted partners in liturgical prayer. We are deeply honored you have chosen Liturgical Press pew resources to assist your parish community.

Know of our prayers for you from Collegeville, Minnesota!

Most sincerely,

John Kyler
