LITURGICAL PRESS

SPRING 2022

Dear Friends in Ministry,

As we look forward to Lent, Triduum, and Easter I am reminded of the words of Blessed Basil Moreau: “Human life is like a great Way of the Cross. We do not have to go to the chapel or church to go through the different stations. The Way of the Cross is everywhere and we travel it every day, even in spite of ourselves and without being aware of it.”

These words seem almost painfully obvious. We need not look far to see the realities of racism, sexism, xenophobia, and all forms of hate and exclusion in our communities, country, and world. If we are honest, we can probably even point to examples in our own church. But just as the Way of the Cross does not end with death, these systems of injustice will not have the final word. If we are willing to look closely, we also see daily examples of humility, service, and self-gift. If we are intentional, we can notice and name the work for justice, peace, and authentic solidarity we encounter in our everyday interactions and labors.

As we enter these holy seasons may we recommit ourselves to the Way of the Cross—finding hope amid doubt, light amid darkness, community amid isolation, and life amid death.

Know of our continued prayers for you from Collegeville, Minnesota.

Most sincerely,

John T. Kyler, General Editor for Parish Resources

Simple Psalter for Solemnities, Feasts, and Other Celebrations

J. Michael Joncas

NEW!

Liturgical Press
music available to download from
Simply Liturgical
Music

Michael Joncas's new Simple Psalter is an attempt to synthesize elements of previous styles of psalm-singing into a new pattern of engaging these sacred texts. Using the new Abbey Psalms and Canticles, Joncas sets every responsorial psalm in the three-year Lectionary in settings that work equally well a cappella or with keyboard accompaniment, using psalm tones notated in proposed speech-rhythm. The Simple Psalter is divided into four volumes: one for solemnities, feasts, and other celebrations, and one each for years A, B and C.

Fr. Jan Michael Joncas has composed and arranged more than three hundred pieces of liturgical music and is the author of six books. He most recently served as a faculty member, artist-in-residence, and research fellow in Catholic Studies at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota.

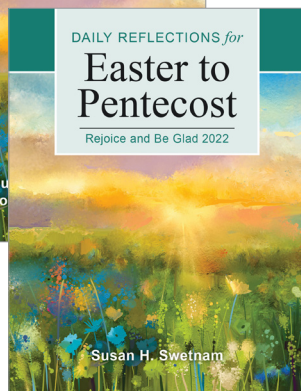

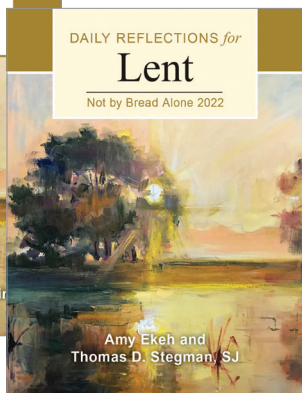

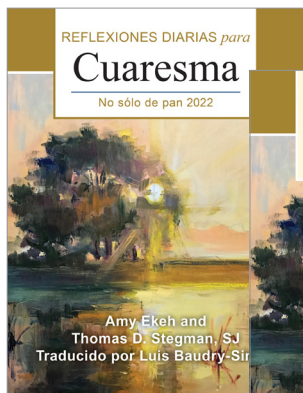

Liturgical Press is pleased to announce a new partnership with Simply Liturgical Music. Committed to meeting the diverse needs of our customers, select Liturgical Press music will be available for direct download from Simply Liturgical Music. Individual titles, beginning with all psalms and canticles from The Collegeville Chant Psalter by Fr. Anthony Ruff, OSB, are now available at slmusic.org. Print editions of our music can still be purchased directly from Liturgical Press at litpress.org. We hope this collaborative effort will facilitate easy digital use of our outstanding Liturgical Press music resources.

The White Stone

The Art of Letting Go

Esther de Waal

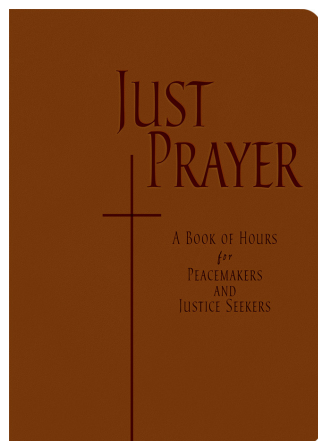

Esther de Waal is one of today's most beloved spiritual writers. In The White Stone, she reflects on the changes and losses that come with growing older. Esther reflects on solitude and, following a period of illness, saying goodbye to a family home and the Welsh border landscape she had known for decades which inspired some of her greatest writing. The white stone of the title refers to a small pebble from the river that ran through her garden that she keeps in her pocket, but also strikes a note of hope referring to the new identity promised by God (Revelation 2.17). This is a book of simple, profound wisdom that will speak to many coping with change in their own lives.

Being Claimed by the Eucharist We Celebrate

A Spiritual Narrative for Priests and Deacons

Scott P. Detisch

NEW!

The eucharistic celebration is a vital part of the life and ministry of every priest and deacon. At the same time, the Eucharist is also a compelling narrative of all that Christ is for the People of God. In this book, Fr. Scott Detisch explores a spirituality of holy orders through the eucharistic actions of Christ: take, bless, break, and give. These are more than ritual actions the deacon or priest performs within the liturgy. As they did for Jesus Christ, these eucharistic words define who a priest or deacon is for God's people.

978-0-8146-6697-5
Paperback 176 pp., 5½ x 8½, $16.95
eBook

Available January 2022

“Being Claimed by the Eucharist We Celebrate* is written especially for priests and deacons, but is also applicable to all people of faith. The author’s goal, which is to convey and illuminate the importance of the role of ministry in the life of the church, is admirably achieved.”

Katarina Schuth, OSF, Professor Emerita, St. Paul Seminary at the University of St. Thomas

“The Second Vatican Council reminded us clearly that the celebration of the Eucharist is the ‘source and summit’ of our lives of faith. In this wonderfully engaging book, Scott Detisch invites us to relearn and live the story of this central celebration of the mystery of divine love, which calls us together to receive and be the Body of Christ in our world.”
