Dear LRSS Community,

The COVID-19 pandemic has changed us. We have fasted from the Eucharist and from gathering as a community. And yet these painful separations led us to a deeper appreciation of the spiritual treasures that we always have with us. One of these treasures is the Word of God.

You in the LRSS community have shown me that our motto for the year could be “Scripture is not canceled!” Whether your Bible study group adjusted to meeting online or you are simply spending more time with the Word, you have embraced the true presence of Christ in the words of Scripture.

As you’ve been busy adapting and growing, we’ve been doing the same here at Little Rock Scripture Study. As you turn the pages of this year’s catalog, we hope you will be excited about all there is to see and study.

We are so proud of our new lectionary-based Bible study series called Ponder. Mahri Leonard-Fleckman invites individuals and groups not only to study the Sunday readings but to ponder them. We’re calling this “contemplative Bible study,” and we hope you will accept this gentle invitation to engage your mind and heart in the richness of the church’s Sunday lectionary.

We continue to add titles to our New Editions and our Alive in the Word series. This year, George Smiga will teach us about the fascinating role of Angels in the Bible (New Editions), and Joshua Whitfield will help us explore the meaning of the Eucharist: Bread of Life in our lives (Alive in the Word).

The Little Rock Catholic Study Bible continues to be a beloved and best-selling tool for reading and understanding the Word. See our new look on pages 16-17!

As the new director of Little Rock Scripture Study, it is my honor to adapt and grow right along with each of you. Know that I’m always here to help—I’m just a phone call or an email away. Together we will continue to study and ponder God’s enduring Word—always with us, never canceled.

Angels in the Bible

George M. Smiga with Little Rock Scripture Study Staff

The Bible is full of passages in which angelic beings are sent to accomplish God’s will. Angels speak for God, direct the course of nations, and protect God’s people. They worship God and deliver God’s judgment. In Angels in the Bible, George Smiga examines some of the Bible’s most fascinating passages about angels, exploring their ministry on God’s behalf and drawing insights for our own spiritual lives. Because angels are mediators of God’s presence and action, studying angels is studying God. 6 lessons.

Pilgrim People
Clifford M. Yeary with Little Rock Scripture Study Staff

Come along on four major pilgrimages in Scripture—the journey of trust with Abraham and Sarah, the journey of freedom with Moses and the Hebrew people, the journey of exile and return with Israel, and the journey of discipleship with Jesus and his followers. God’s call sometimes leads and sometimes sends, and the destinations can be new and wondrous or even dark and dangerous. What makes the journey a pilgrimage is God’s abiding companionship. 4 lessons.

The Sermon on the Mount
Clifford M. Yeary with Little Rock Scripture Study Staff

Jesus’ call to profound discipleship in the Sermon on the Mount is too often dismissed as special instructions for only the holiest and most exceptional Christians. In The Sermon on the Mount, Clifford Yeary challenges us to hear the sermon once again as Christ intended it, as our call to follow him whose life illustrated its every ideal. Yeary helps us to hear the Sermon on the Mount as a message for each of us, a challenge that is our constant call to renewal.

“The larger story of the Eucharist is God’s desire to be with us. God will always find a way to feed us—always has, always will.”

Joshua J. Whitfield
Eucharist: Bread of Life

God feeds his people. In the desert, God’s covenant with Israel was sealed through sacrifice and a meal. On the altars of our churches, God continues to feed us with the bread and wine of the new covenant—the food and drink that is Christ himself. In Eucharist: Bread of Life, Fr. Joshua J. Whitfield, priest and preacher, explores three Scripture passages and helps us rediscover this enduring mystery, from the heights of Sinai to the depths of our own hearts and lives.

Baptism: Alive in Christ

Baptism is not just an event that happened in the past, but is the identity we are immersed in as followers of Jesus. This volume helps disciples reflect on this identity in ways that take seriously some of the central questions of contemporary life, as well as themes from our spiritual traditions. Explore three New Testament passages to contemplate what it means to be alive in God’s love, alive in Christian community, and alive in Christ’s death and resurrection.
