Becoming Fire

Through the Year with the Desert Fathers and Mothers

New and Revised Edition

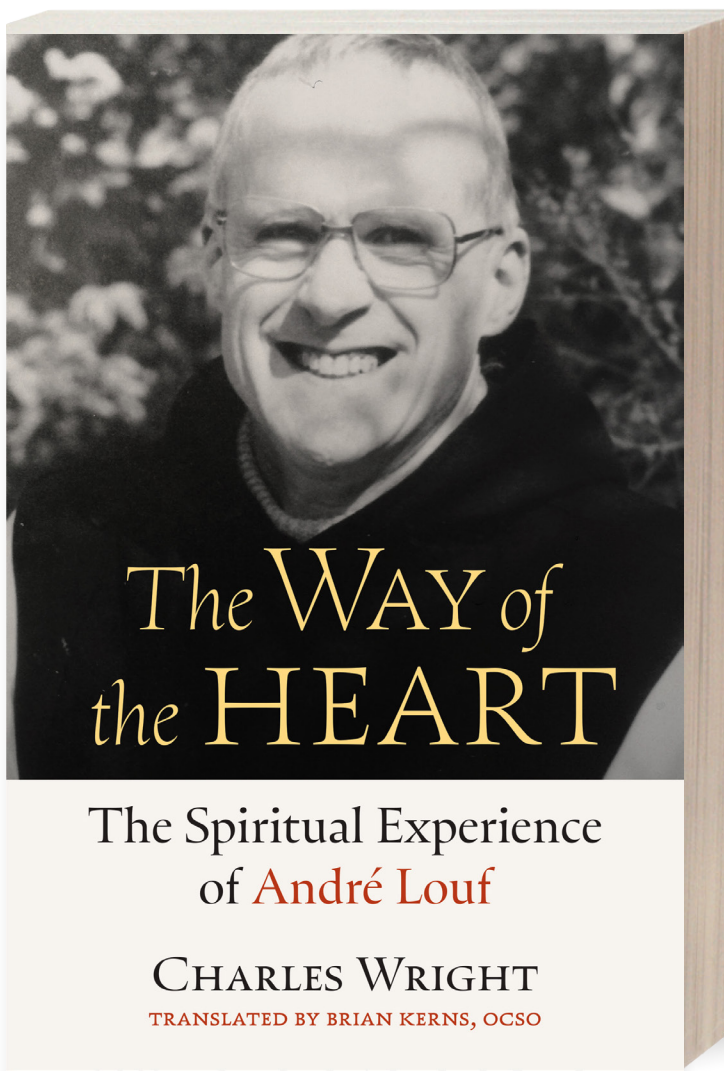

Edited by Tim Vivian

The sayings of the desert monks of the fifth and sixth centuries continue to inspire readers with their wisdom. In this revised edition of Becoming Fire: Through the Year with the Desert Fathers and Mothers, Tim Vivian arranges these “words” in short daily readings and invites readers to savor the monks’ advice as guides to Christian living.

“These sayings remain as fresh and compelling today as they were when they were spoken.”

The Way of the Heart

The Spiritual Experience of André Louf

Charles Wright, Translated by Brian Kerns, OCSO

Based on a wide variety of interviews, printed sources, and Dom André Louf's spiritual journal, The Way of the Heart narrates Louf's spiritual journey throughout his life, which portrays a man whose immense gifts pulled him in many directions, while always endeavoring to submit himself to God's will.

"Thanks to the author's use of extracts from Louf's personal journal, the reader walks this path with Dom André in a small way, to his own eternal benefit."

The “Lost” Dialogue of Gregory the Great

The Life of St. Scholastica

Carmel Posa, SGS

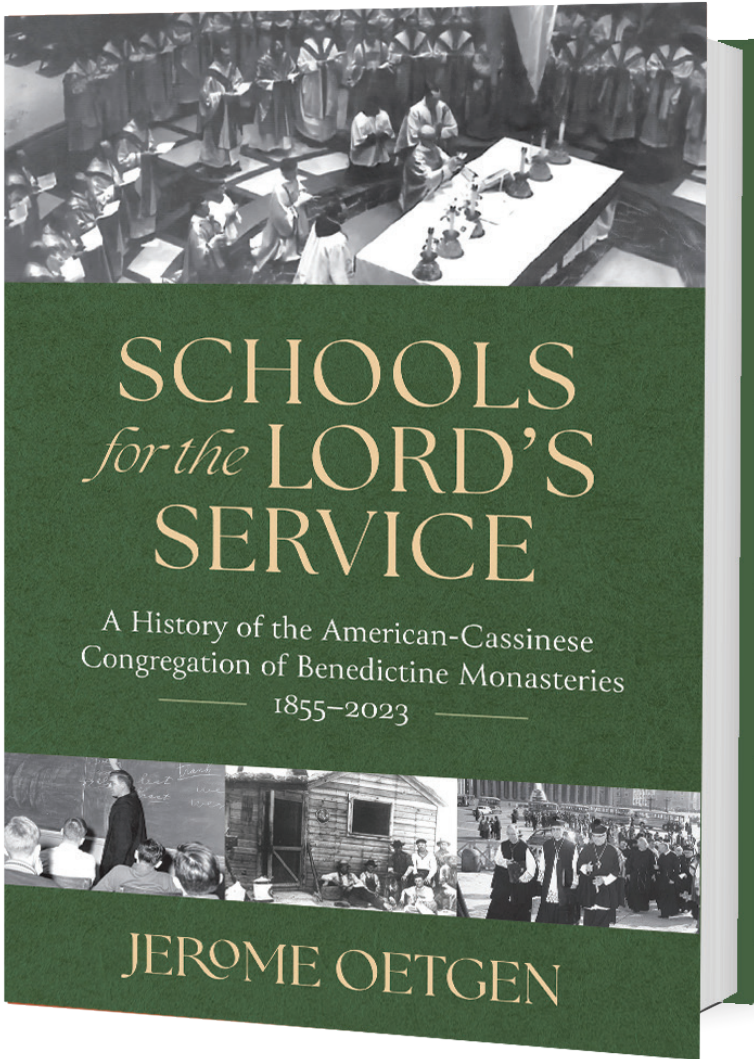

Foreword by Michael Casey, OCSO

Using a “disciplined imagination” and the ancient hagiographical method informed by a wide range of scholarship, Carmel Posa, SGS, recovers the missing life and voice of St. Scholastica of Nursia.

“In this book, one can feel the love of monastic life and the feminine side to it.”

MONASTIC ECOLOGICAL WISDOM

A Living Tradition

SAMUEL TORVEND

Monastic Ecological Wisdom

A Living Tradition

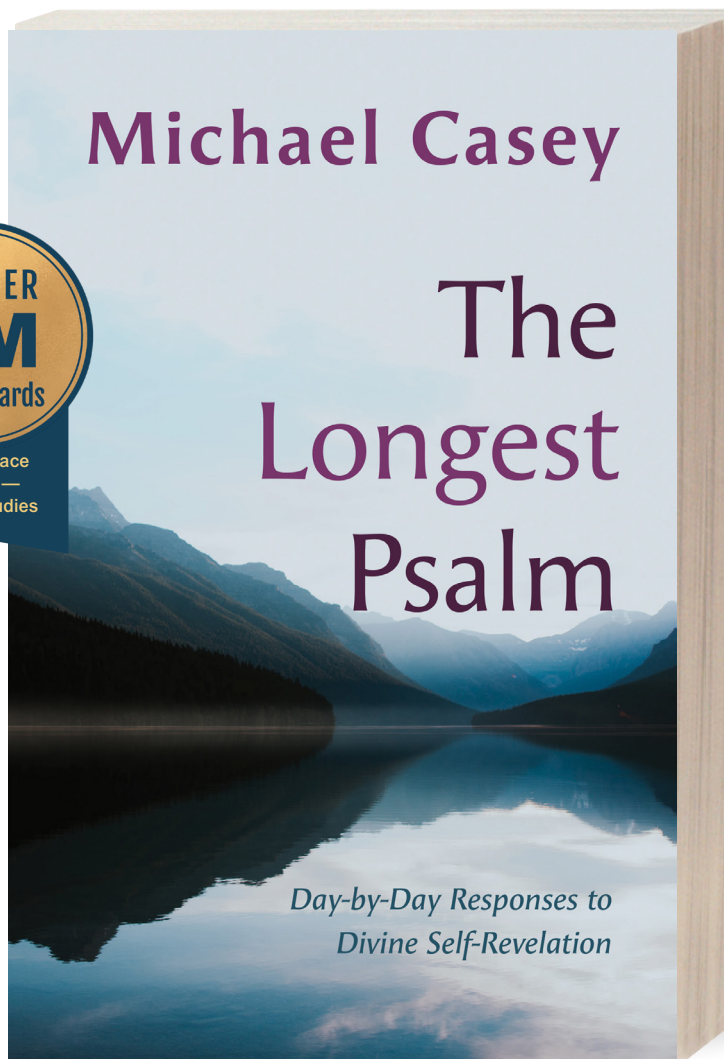

Samuel Torvend

Inspired by Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si and Benedictine communities around the world whose shared monastic values inform ecological practice, Monastic Ecological Wisdom uncovers the hidden story of early Christian and monastic care for the earth.

“Oblate Torvend has written an exquisite history of Benedict’s care for the environment which he tried to instill in his followers. Benedict’s teachings echo Pope Francis’ incisive Laudato Si.”

The Longest Psalm

Day-by-Day Responses to Divine Self-Revelation

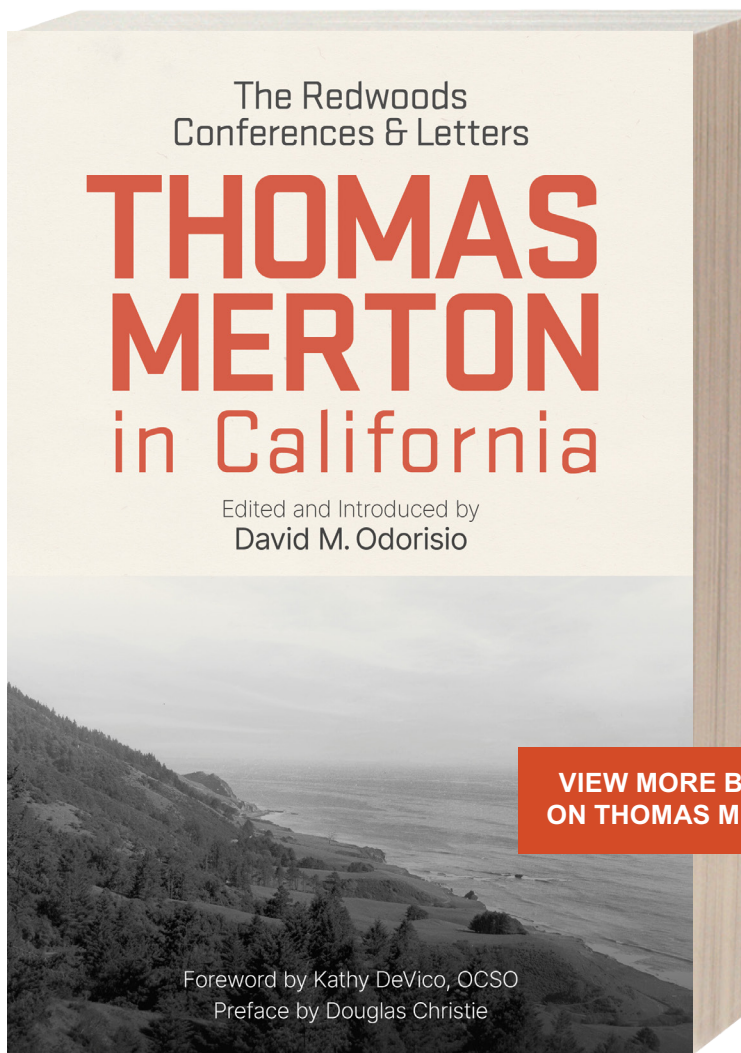

Michael Casey, OCSO

Perfect for a brief meditation before beginning the day, Casey invites us to spend time wandering with the psalmist to allow God's Word to play a significant role in our lives. Through this careful reflection on the longest psalm, readers will discover the text is not merely a psalm to be sung but also a path to be followed.

"God's self-revelation in Scripture can be known by us through lectio. Fr. Michael Casey has done the homework. All we have to do is turn the page."

Thomas Merton in California

The Redwoods Conferences and Letters

Edited and Introduced by David M. Odorisio

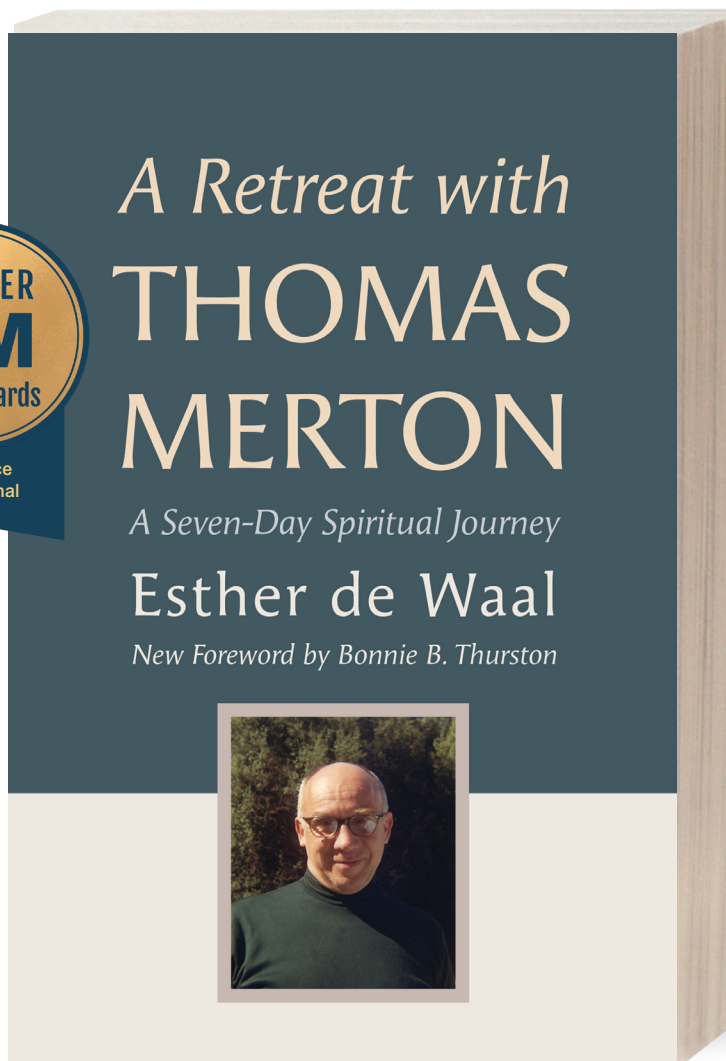

Foreword by Kathy DeVico, OCSO, Preface by Douglas Christie

Previously unpublished material from world-renowned Trappist monk and author, Thomas Merton, featuring the final conference talks given in the United States before his untimely death.

“As one of the participants of the Redwoods Conferences, I can sum up the atmosphere of those days in one word: electrified. Thomas Merton in California gives readers the privilege to sense for themselves the formidable creative charge of those encounters as if they were there. What higher praise could there be for this book?”

The Very Devout Meditations attributed to Bernard of Clairvaux

A Translation, with Introduction and Notes, of the Meditationes piissimae de cognitione humanae conditionis

David N. Bell

This volume, the first complete translation in more than three-hundred years, presents one of the most important texts in the history of medieval Latin spirituality.

“As usual, David Bell is as entertaining as he is effortlessly erudite. This work will interest everyone who is interested in the way Bernard was perceived in the centuries following his death, and, in general, the way in which reputation and authorship were transmitted and transformed in medieval Europe.”

Strangers in a Strange Land

The Trappist Monastery of Saint Susan at Lulworth, Dorset 1794–1817

David N. Bell

Strangers in a Strange Land brings the story of Saint Susan's monastery to light against the backdrop of a war between England and France, religious prejudice, conflicts of personality, lies, and misunderstanding.

“The fruit of meticulous research into a wide range of sources, this is a compelling read.”

God's Call Is Everywhere

A Global Analysis of Contemporary Religious Vocations for Women

Patricia Wittberg, SC, Mary L. Gautier, Gemma Simmonds, CJ
with Nathalie Becquart, XMCJ; Foreword by Patricia Murray, IBVM

God's Call Is Everywhere is the first comparative analysis of research in six countries investigating women who have entered vowed religious life in Catholicism in the twenty-first century.

By examining a summary of these studies and comparing differences, readers will learn how to move forward in the future.

"This book is a hopeful and realistic window into religious life today. It should be required reading for all who are involved in the administration of women's religious institutes and the formation of newer religious."
