Stay connected

Dear Friends,

In Chapter 48 of his Rule, Saint Benedict encourages monastics to see sacred reading as part of their daily “manual labor,” including committing to a particular book each Lent. Sister Judith Sutera, OSB, notes that sacred or divine reading (lectio divina) is “not an add-on that one does when there’s spare time around other responsibilities, it is something that has its own designated slot on the agenda” (St. Benedict’s Rule: An Inclusive Translation and Daily Commentary, Liturgical Press, 2021).

As a parish minister, I have always considered it a responsibility and privilege to connect (busy) parishioners with books and resources to help them reflect and grow, not unlike what Saint Benedict envisioned. While the needs of parishioners are diverse, our Spring 2025 Parish Resources Catalog contains a variety of possibilities to help parishioners read, pray, share, and grow in faith.

For biblical reflection and spiritual growth, don’t miss our popular pocket-sized daily reflection books for Lent and Easter or our books from Amy Ekeh, Bonnie Thurston, Virginia Herbers, Micah Kiel, Patrick Hartin, Friar Daniel Chowning, OCD, and Isaac Slater, OCSO. Each in their own way, these resources break open the healing ministry of Jesus, the passion narratives, the lives of our biblical friends, and our own longing for personal and social transformation in our polarized world.

This catalog also showcases important new resources to support parish ministers and ministries, including liturgical and initiation ministries (from Living Liturgy to our recent ritual books), communication ministries, trauma-informed pastoral care, and social concerns ministries; as well as continued reflection on synodality, the abuse crisis, and analysis of our ever-changing church and social life.

God bless you in your ministry with all God’s People,

Biblical Journeys of Grace
Virginia Herbers

“In a world that continues to encourage us to be perfect, Virginia writes about the graces received through the times and seasons that we may want to ignore. Instead of wishing our struggles away, she invites us, through our heroes of Scripture, to consider how we are ‘blessed in the mess’ of our daily lives.”

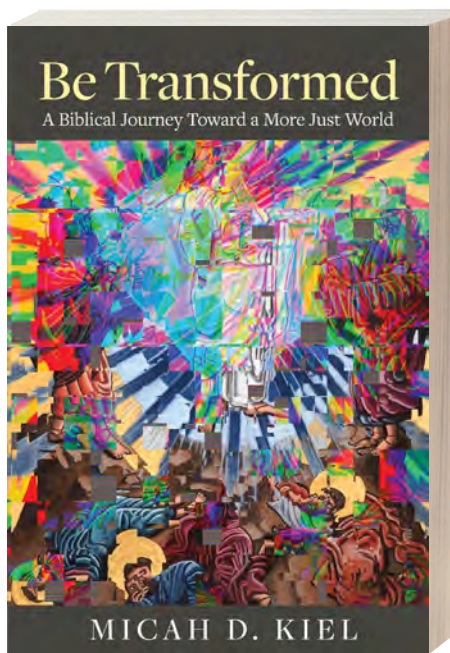

Danielle Harrison, retreat director and principal, Mission Faith Equity Consulting

“This book is a warm conversation with a wise friend who helps us notice in the gospels, our own lives, and everyday challenges, how much the gifts of love and grace abound.”

*New Commentary Guide
by Paul Turner!*

Eucharistic Reservation Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharistic Mystery outside Mass

Paul Turner

In eucharistic adoration, the faithful spend time in the presence of Christ, who in turn is present to them. In communion services, the faithful unable to participate in the sacrifice of the Mass can still receive its fruit. In Eucharistic Reservation, Paul Turner explains the new translation of these guidelines and refreshes all those who find delight in the eucharistic presence of Christ even when Mass is over.

The Future of Synodality

How We Move Forward from Here

Kristin M. Colberg and Jos Moons, SJ

How can the church continue to grow in a more synodal—more participative, open-minded, inclusive, and spiritual—ecclesial style? Now that the Synod on Synodality (2021–2024) has ended, Kristin Colberg and Jos Moons begin to answer this key question in essential ways.

“The best single volume out there for understanding and advancing Pope Francis’ vision of a more participatory, collaborative, and hopeful church.”

The Soul Also Keeps the Score

A Trauma-Informed Companion to the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius

Robert McChesney, SJ

In this pioneering work, McChesney interprets the classic sixteenth-century mystical text of the Spiritual Exercises as born in violence to the body and soul of their author, the traumatized, battle-wounded-turned-saint, Ignatius of Loyola. Whether you are a spiritual, pastoral, or mental health professional, member of the care circle, or wounded seeker, The Soul Also Keeps the Score unlocks a treasure trove of fresh insight and hope.

“Fr. McChesney has crafted a sturdy and engaging vessel, navigating the turbulent waters among disciplines in the service of that most Ignatian of goals: to help souls.”

HEALED by LOVE

Contemplation as a Path of Healing
According to St. John of the Cross

Healed by Love

Contemplation as a Path of Healing
according to St. John of the Cross

Daniel Chowning, OCD

God has planted in our hearts an insatiable longing to love and be loved, that is, to love God, others, and creation with the very love of God. We know, however, from our human experience, that we fail to love as we desire with all our heart.

In Healed by Love, Carmelite Friar Daniel Chowning, urges those in need of healing to seek refuge in the spiritual doctrine of St. John of the Cross.

“Healed by Love is a masterpiece of the integration of our Lord’s healing ministry captured in Catholic biblical theology, St. John of the Cross’s Carmelite mysticism, and solid contemporary psychology grounded in the truths of Catholic anthropology.”

Reseeding Religious Life through Global Sisterhood

Edited by Susan Rose Francois, CSJP, and Juliet Mousseau, RSCJ

“An insightful and beautiful representation of the real experiences of modern Catholic sisters. This book ought to become required reading for anyone who is concerned about the shifts occurring in religious life. What a gift to the Church!”

Julia Walsh, Franciscan Sister of Perpetual Adoration Messy Jesus Business podcast host and author of
*For Love of the Broken Body

“The future of the church, as of religious life, is unknowable, but is all the richer for hearing the honest and courageous voices of the sisters of today and tomorrow.”

Gemma Simmonds, CJ, director of Religious Life Institute
Cambridge, UK, and co-author of *God’s Call Is Everywhere

“Do Not Judge Anyone”

Desert Wisdom for a Polarized World

Isaac Slater, OCSO

In “Do Not Judge Anyone” Isaac Slater, OCSO, reflects on the desert fathers’ teachings and practice of not judging with a focus on contemporary life.

Interweaving sources from East and West, ancient and modern, Slater offers a radical, refreshing, and deeply hopeful vision of the gospel for the twenty-first century.

“A beautiful and honest reflection on what it might mean to refrain from judging others. Never have we needed this vision of inclusive love more than we do now.”

Douglas E. Christie, professor emeritus, Loyola Marymount University and author of *The Insurmountable Darkness of Love

“A jewel of a book. Read with attention, curiosity, and humility, this meditation on non-judgment becomes a kind of lectio divina, or holy reading.”

Vanessa Zusei Goddard, author of *Still Running: The Art of Meditation in Motion

Accountability, Healing, and Trust

Interdisciplinary Reflections for Ministry in the Midst of the Catholic Sex Abuse Crisis

Edited by Kimberly Hope Belcher and David A. Clairmont

By carefully listening to the words and wisdom of survivors, this volume focuses on ways forward in the work of creating an atmosphere of accountability, healing, and trust in today's church.

“Accountability, Healing, and Trust engenders hope, doing so through respect for the needs of survivors, honest confrontation with the sinfulness and failure that blight many aspects of the ecclesial community, and a commitment to the conversion that the church’s prayer and worship engender. This is a challenging book, but a necessary one.”
