New year greetings feel especially profound as Liturgical Press marks its centennial anniversary in 2026. For a century, we have carried the Church's living voice forward—rooted in Benedictine wisdom, steady in hope, and alive with possibility for what comes next.

As we mark this momentous anniversary, I am especially proud to share resources that carry our tradition forward for today's believers and parish ministry leaders. Sister Genevieve Glen's The Word in Time: A Benedictine Reflection on Praying the Liturgy of the Hours joins the many books we have published over the years that invite every member of the baptized to enter into daily prayer. Additionally, our new titles include reflection resources for Lent and Easter, Little Rock Scripture Study and biblical spirituality for individuals or groups, the latest additions to the Enacting Catholic Social Tradition series, and an exciting new book on Pope Leo.

Liturgical leaders will not want to miss the second edition of Rites, Volume One—the classic resource for study and liturgy preparation fully updated, and now available as an eBook. Likewise, we are proud to present our Liturgical Press editions (English and Spanish) of the new ritual book, Order of Anointing of the Sick and of their Pastoral Care along with To Free, Save, and Raise Up: a forthcoming companion commentary on the revisions of this ritual book by 2025 Catholic Media Association Author of the Year, Father Paul Turner.

This Spring catalog showcases the wideness of our Liturgical Press tradition, with resources that meet the needs of today and tomorrow. Thank you for walking with us through these first 100 years—and for helping us step boldly into the next.

God bless you in your ministry with all God's people.

*New Commentary Guide
by Paul Turner!*

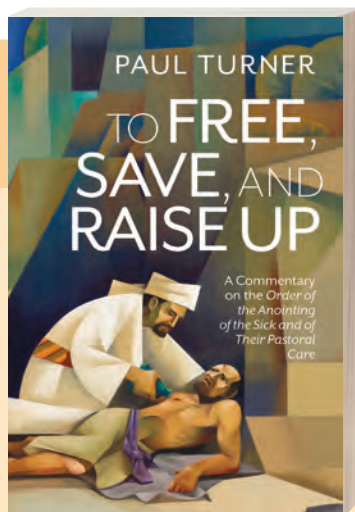

To Free, Save, and Raise Up

A Commentary on the Order of the Anointing of the Sick and of their Pastoral Care

“With his usual acumen for liturgical history, theological wisdom, and pastoral insight, Fr. Paul Turner’s To Free, Save, and Raise Up provides a comprehensive and practical commentary on the Church’s rituals for ministering to the elderly, the homebound, the sick, and the dying. All those engaged in this important pastoral work will find in Fr. Turner’s book an invitation and an inspiration for renewal in their ministry to our brothers and sisters who are suffering.”

Eucharistic Reservation

Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharistic Mystery outside Mass

Paul Turner

In eucharistic adoration, the faithful spend time in the presence of Christ, who in turn is present to them. In communion services, the faithful unable to participate in the sacrifice of the Mass can still receive its fruit. In Eucharistic Reservation, Paul Turner explains the new translation of these guidelines and refreshes all those who find delight in the eucharistic presence of Christ even when Mass is over.

“This is an erudite presentation of the new English translation of Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharistic Mystery Outside of Mass. It is informed by clear writing, historical context, theological depth and a profound pastoral sensitivity.”

GENEVIEVE GLEN, OSB

THE WORD IN TIME

A BENEDICTINE REFLECTION ON
PRAYING THE LITURGY OF THE HOURS

The Word in Time

A Benedictine Reflection on Praying the Liturgy of the Hours

Genevieve Glen, OSB

In The Word in Time, Benedictine Sister Genevieve Glen offers biblically inspired reflections to explore what may be found through the work of faithful listening. Drawing on a life immersed in monastic prayer and teaching the Liturgy of the Hours, she reflects on the enduring practice of praying always, praying in time, praying with words, and praying in the Body.

“Through sacred Scripture, poetry, personal stories, and Benedictine wisdom, Sr. Genevieve’s reflection, The Word in Time, entices readers to join the faithful cloud of witnesses to take up the Liturgy of Hours as holy work. This hopeful volume will rekindle people’s commitment to listen, recognize, praise, and respond to God because of the way Sr. Genevieve models vulnerably and humanely how praying always with fidelity will transform us and the communities of our lives as the Body of Christ.”

From Robert to Pope Leo

Our Friendship, His Mission

Armando Jesús Lovera Vásquez

Translated by Barry Hudock

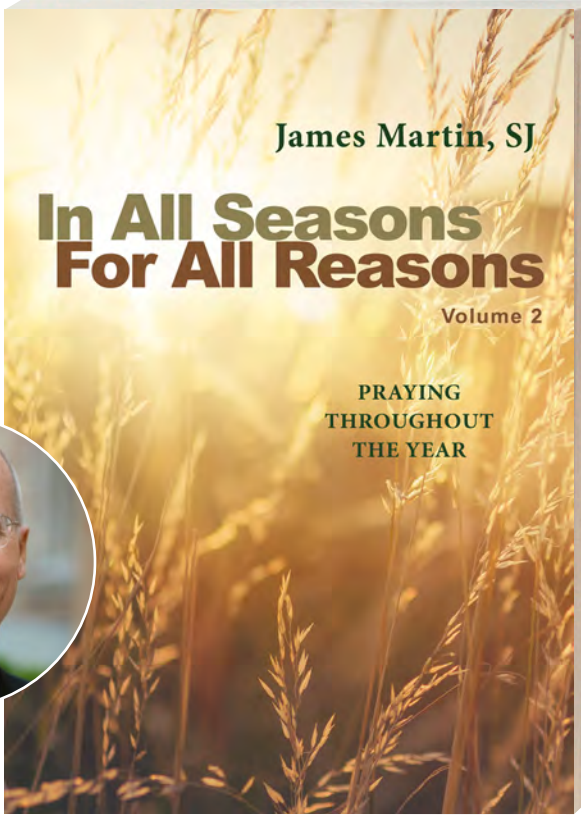

This is the story of a true friendship, a friendship of the soul.

In From Robert to Pope Leo, Armando Lovera shares an inside look at the journey of Robert Prevost, now Pope Leo XIV, whom he met in Trujillo,

Peru, and with whom he shared his mission, conversations, and daily life for decades. Throughout this inspiring story, Lovera shares personal insight into this spiritual leader of deep faith and compassion. The result is an intimate portrait of a pope and the beginnings of a pontificate, revealing the man in Leo XIV from the depths of friendship and shared faith.

Stretch Out Your Hand

Reflections on the Healing
Ministry of Jesus

Amy Ekeh; Introduction by Thomas D. Stegman, SJ

In times of need, find refuge in the healing ministry of Jesus. These forty reflections take us deep into the heart of powerful Gospel stories, helping us hear and experience them anew so we too may stretch out our hands—to receive and to extend the remarkable healing ministry of Jesus.

“Stretch Our Your Hand contains 40 reflections on all the healing passages throughout the gospels, alongside meditations and prayers that encourage us to see healing as active participation in God’s vision of the world. God, Ekeh reminds us, became human and is present with us in our suffering. These beautiful reflections inspire readers to read these familiar stories with new eyes.”

The Glenstal Prayerbook

A Benedictine Book of Prayer

The Monks of
Glenstal Abbey, Ireland

In this thoroughly revised edition of the 2001 international bestseller, The Glenstal Prayerbook provides a traditional approach to prayer, taking its essential form from the monastic prayer life as lived in Glenstal Abbey in Ireland. Divided into three sections, this prayerbook is a helpful resource for those encountering monastic prayer at all levels.

The Glenstal Prayerbook is a rich, nourishing resource for your prayer journey. It draws on the wisdom of the Bible, enshrined in Benedictine liturgy and reflects in a special way the Celtic tradition with its earthy, popular and devotional prayers. Beautifully bound and designed, it is both prayer and inspiration.

Learning the Language of Creation

Catholic Social Teaching and Integral Ecology

Damien Marie Savino, FSE

In Learning the Language of Creation, Franciscan Sister Damien Marie Savino offers a new way of thinking about creation, human beings, and the relationship between them to realize the promise of integral ecology put into practice.

“Learning the Language of Creation offers a fresh way of thinking about creation and the unique place of humans in the created world, one that holds much promise for envisioning integral ecology and putting it into practice. It will be useful for all concerned with how we as human persons can come together to care for our common home.”

Empowering People through Encounter

Catholic Social Teaching and Community Organizing

Erin Brigham and Maureen H. O’Connell

Empowering People through Encounter presents the Catholic Social Tradition as an embodied, practical, and inspiring way to connect faith and action. It highlights the dispositions, skills, and methods of faith-based community organizing through a combination of interviews with Catholic organizers in the field and case studies of campaigns from a variety of national contexts. Students and practitioners of Catholic Social Thought will appreciate the introduction to the concrete skills of community organizing to encounter the Catholic Social Tradition with particular emphasis on the social teachings and synodal vision of Pope Francis.
