Spirituality & Prayer

FALL 2024

Living Prayer

A Book of Hours for Renewing Creation

Alison M. Benders, Lisa Fullam, and Gina Hens-Piazza

Living Prayer invites readers to embrace our role as servant-cultivators in the ecology of God, celebrating and sustaining all that is. Following the pattern of the daily prayer of the church, it encourages us to pray through our lives, converting our hearts and hands to the ecology of God.

“This thoughtfully composed prayer book is the perfect companion to the spiritual call of Pope Francis’ encyclical, Laudato Si’, and invites its readers into a living relationship with all creatures that inhabit this planet we share, our common home.”

Everyday Annunciations

ON LEARNING TO

Say Yes

Susan H. Swetnam

Everyday Annunciations

On Learning to Say Yes

Susan H. Swetnam

Drawing on Mary's example, wisdom figures both historical and contemporary, Scripture, and powerful personal narrative, Everyday Annunciations offers constructive hope for those struggling to find a way forward when life catches them by surprise.

“Susan Swetnam helps us be on the lookout for the tiny ‘annunciations’ that punctuate—and occasionally puncture—our lives. Stepping into paintings of the Annunciation, she gives us ways to explore our own reactions and emotions when we find ourselves facing a call to change course in unexpected ways.”

Gifts from Friends We Never Wanted

Biblical Journeys of Grace

Virginia Herbers

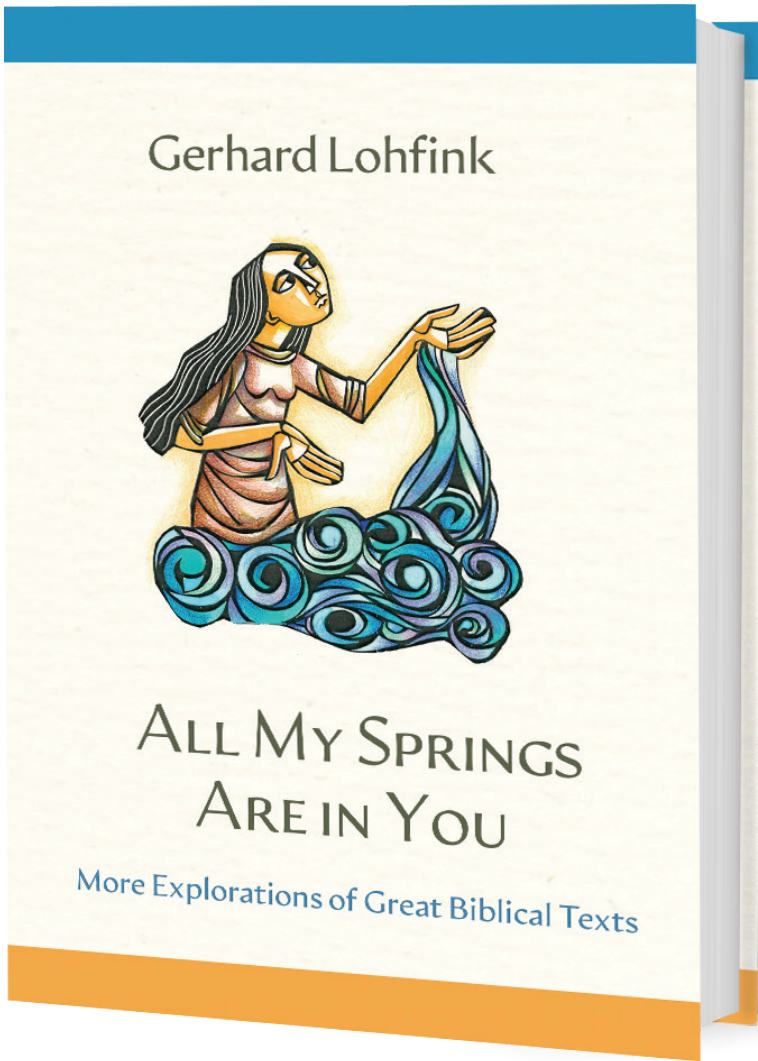

Unwelcome guests are not generally greeted with gratitude but occasionally they become unexpected friends bearing gifts we never would have asked for. In this book, Herbers chooses a gospel character to accompany us as we engage these uninvited “friends” and invites us to join her on a journey of discovery, vulnerability, honesty—and hospitality.

“This book is a warm conversation with a wise friend who helps us notice in the Gospels, our own lives, and everyday challenges, how much the gifts of love and grace abound.”

All My Springs Are in You

More Explorations of Great Biblical Texts

Gerhard Lohfink (†2024), Translated by Linda M. Maloney

By reflecting on the statement “All my springs are in you,” renowned Scripture scholar Gerhard Lohfink invites us to be renewed through the image of the springs of true life bursting forth in our own lives.

“It is not just that Lohfink expands our understanding, but he leads us into a deeper realization of our Christian faith and the joy that it brings to our lives.”

Pauline A. Viviano
Professor Emerita, Loyola University Chicago

Be Transformed

A Biblical Journey toward a More Just World

Micah D. Kiel

In Be Transformed, Micah Kiel brings together Catholic social teaching and its biblical roots and applies them to instances of injustice in our world today. It is an accessible guide that encourages readers to break open their hearts and minds to the possibility of life-giving transformation.

“Kiel has produced a tremendous text for inviting people to consider how this Catholic Social Teaching might transform their lives, and the world.”

Speak Lord, Your Servant Is Listening

Reflections on Faithful Communication in a Digital Age

Daniella Zsupan-Jerome

In Speak, Lord, Your Servant Is Listening, pastoral theologian Daniella Zsupan-Jerome invites readers on a retreat—rooted in the Benedictine tradition—that promotes a spirituality of communication built on listening, engagement with the Word, and hospitality to others.

“A necessary addition to the growing library of communications spirituality! Encased in a monastic framework, these Scripture-based reflections on our digital culture challenge readers to consider intentionality in the digital experience and prayerfully reflect on whether communication encounters lead to authentic communion.”

JOHN SHEA

Borrowing Wonder

Christmas Poems and Reflections to Open the Heart

John Shea

Drawings by Franklin, Mark, and Carolyn McMahon

In this collection of poems and brief reflections on Advent and Christmas, award-winning author John Shea urges us to slow down during the rush of the season and open our hearts and minds to how the Spirit is calling us to renewal.

“This wonderful series of Christmas poems can help bring a little wonder back into our lives. They show us how we are a balm for those parts of us that are jaded and cynical.”
