It is impossible to name each of the ways that our lives have changed these last months. It is sometimes difficult to discern which of these disruptions are temporary and which are permanent, or when yesterday’s norms must change to promote thriving communities today. Christ’s call to continual conversion is not only for our hearts, but for our minds, our communities, and all of creation.
Our catalog has also changed a bit this season. To begin, we’re sharing recommended resources for liturgical aids during in-person or live-stream worship, or for individual prayer that is rooted in the lectionary (pp. 2-9). Our editorial team set a goal to make the Word of God accessible, and we have worked to ensure these resources are as flexible as possible for when parish and family needs may change throughout the year.

We have some fantastic new books from new and familiar authors (pp. 10-21), including a new Stations of the Cross, Advent Wreath prayers, and titles about prayer and discernment, priestly spirituality, liturgy, Scripture, and two new People of God biographies. Our spring releases (pp. 24-27) included a study guide companion to the USCCB’s document Open Wide Our Hearts, which many parishes and dioceses have been using in virtual book clubs this summer.

We have an embarrassment of riches among our previously published books, but some titles have been stamped as recommended resources because we anticipate they could serve a timely need in parish communities. Other books are sporting a first place ribbon because they won an award in the 2020 Catholic Press Association or Association of Catholic Publishers awards!

Change is hard, especially when it comes unexpectedly. However, change can also be life-giving. While no one can predict what community life or worship will look like “when this is over,” we can work now to create the communities that we yearn to belong to, and cheer when others come to share table (or screen) with us.

Paul Turner is pastor of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Kansas City, Missouri and director of the Office of Divine Worship for the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. He holds a doctorate in sacred theology from Sant’ Anselmo in Rome. His publications include Glory in the Cross, Let Us Pray, Inseparable Love, One Love, Whose Mass Is It? Light in the Darkness, and When Other Christians Become Catholic, all published by Liturgical Press. He is a contributor to Give Us This Day.

Ronald Patrick Raab, CSC, ministers among the vulnerable and marginalized of society and the Church. From his experiences in living the Gospel among the poor, he speaks and writes about prayer and service and knowing the love of God through our common poverty. He is active as a retreat director, blogger, award-winning author, and visual artist. Fr. Ron serves as pastor of Sacred Heart Parish, Colorado Springs, Colorado. He is a contributor to Give Us This Day.

Seamlessly woven with Scripture, these Stations give voice to the anguish of the abused and abandoned, the confession of complicit clergy and the pleading of God’s people. Paul Turner’s text unites us in a meditation on the Passion in atonement for sins associated with the sexual abuse of our children and with a heartfelt plea for mercy and healing.”

The Advent Wreath
Blessings and Prayers for Families and Households

Jay Cormier

“The Stations of the Cross have always had the power to help people find light and hope in the midst of suffering. Where we encounter the cross in life, we also find Jesus with us. This adaptation of the Stations to the suffering of those who have been sexually abused and betrayed, along with the grief and shame shared within the Body of Christ, is a much needed aid to encountering the redemptive grace of healing that can only be found in God.”

Most Reverend James V. Johnston, Jr.
Bishop of Kansas City-St. Joseph
Chair-elect, USCCB Committee for the Protection of Children and Young People

“In the traditional devotion of the Stations of the Cross, we are invited to contemplate and reflect on the suffering of Jesus in his journey towards death. Fr. Paul and Fr. Ron plunge us into a deeper and even more confronting experience of contemporary suffering—that of the victims of abuse in the wounded body of Christ, the Church. The unflinchingly honest words and searing images of this prayer experience will move the participant deeply, while offering a powerful and liberating pathway to healing and transformation. I highly recommend this book to all who have suffered, directly or indirectly, in this traumatic episode in the life of our Catholic community.”

Rev. Jim Clarke, PhD
Director of New Evangelization
Archdiocese of Los Angeles

The Advent wreath symbolizes the passage of time during the four weeks leading to Christmas. Jay Cormier encourages individuals and families to not just admire their home wreath, but to pray together around the wreath throughout the season. This popular leaflet has been updated in full-color to include revised prayers and Scripture text from the New American Bible, Revised Edition. Three-minute prayer services for each week of Advent, as well as Christmas Eve, are offered to prepare hearts for the coming of Christ.

Cormier has contributed to many religious journals including America, Worship, and U.S. Catholic and is the author of several books, including The Deacon’s Ministry of the Word and previous editions of Waiting in Joyful Hope: Daily Reflections for Advent and Christmas and Not by Bread Alone: Daily Reflections for Lent, published by Liturgical Press.
Prayer Takes Us Home

The Theology and Practice of Christian Prayer

Gerhard Lohfink

Translated by Linda M. Maloney

Many people would like to learn to pray all over again. Others are not so sure they ought to pray. They want to know whether prayer will help them and, more than that, whether it will be of any use at all to our world.

This book gives an answer—not in the form of glib instructions, but by introducing the reader to the theology of prayer. It refers again and again to the Bible, especially the Psalms. At the same time, it speaks about personal experiences as well. Gerhard Lohfink writes in inviting, easy-to-read language, answering questions such as:

“To whom do we pray?”

“Does it make any sense to ask for things in prayer?”

“What happens in the Eucharistic Prayer?”

“What is so special about the Psalms?”

“How can I practice Christian meditation?”

This book offers an inviting approach to Christian prayer.

“This gorgeous book, rich in wisdom, will change the way readers understand and experience prayer.”

Mahri Leonard-Fleckman, College of the Holy Cross

Gerhard Lohfink was professor of New Testament exegesis at the University of Tübingen. Since 1986, he has lived and worked as a theologian for the Catholic Integrated Community. His many books include No Irrelevant Jesus, Jesus of Nazareth, Does God Need the Church?, Is This All There Is?, and The Our Father, all from Liturgical Press.
Shepherds and Fishermen
Spiritual Exercises for Bishops, Priests, and Religious
Raniero Cantalamessa, OFM Cap; translated by Marsha Daigle-Williamson and Patrick McSherry, OFM Cap; Foreword by Archbishop José Gomez

Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, OFM Cap, preacher to the papal household for over forty years, graciously accepted Pope Francis’ invitation to lead a six-day retreat for the bishops of the United States in January, 2019. Shepherds and Fishermen contains the reflections and meditations that guided this gathering, presented in an accessible format for groups and individuals seeking spiritual and ministerial inspiration.

Shepherds and Fishermen lifts up the words of Mark 3:14: “He appointed twelve that they might be with him and he might send them forth to preach.” Reflections and meditations offered in lectio divina, homilies, and liturgies focus on what it means to “be with Jesus” while also “going forth to preach.” Retreatants will reflect upon the ways their ministry is dependent upon both personal sanctification and pastoral activity.

The twenty-six Scripturally-based and culturally-relevant meditations makes Shepherds and Fishermen an ideal companion for a self-directed retreat or a prolonged spiritual exercise.

978-0-8146-6641-8 Paperback, 280 pp., 5 ¼ x 8 ½, $29.95

Respond in Love
Wedding Processionals with Entrance Antiphons

Luke D. Rosen

Respond in Love seamlessly marries six of the most popular wedding processionals with the Entrance Antiphons from The Roman Missal, Third Edition. Liturgically sound and musically pleasing, each processional encourages assembly participation in praying the antiphons with simple, recognizable, and singable melodies. Each Antiphon can be prayed as a vocal solo or call-and-response. This resource pairs perfectly with The Order of Celebrating Matrimony, Second Edition.

Respond in Love is scored for cantor/congregation, keyboard, guitar, two C instruments, and two B-flat instruments. Assembly reprint files are available on One License for easy insertion of congregation parts into wedding programs.

Luke D. Rosen is a composer, conductor, singer, pianist, and educator. He has served as the Director of Music Ministry at Corpus Christi University Parish in Toledo, Ohio since 2000.

“Something wonderful happens when a composer both understands the heritage of church music and writes to enable a singing assembly to take part in the Church’s ritual prayer. From long pastoral experience, Luke Rosen clearly knows what many brides and grooms choose for their processional music. He has seamlessly yoked six of these popular selections to a simple call-and-response version of the three Entrance Antiphons assigned to the three formularies for the celebration of Matrimony in the Ordinary Form of the Roman Rite. This fusion should promote both festivity as the wedding party walks down the aisle and community prayer as the assembly responds by rote to the phrases of the cantor. I can only hope that Luke’s creativity would inspire other composers to develop similar creative solutions to what may be experienced as ritual problems in celebrating the Church’s liturgy.”

Fr. J. Michael Joncas

“Respond in Love . . . What a breath of fresh air for anyone involved in planning music for weddings! I wasn’t sure what to expect upon hearing this—but was thrilled to see the time, creativity, and musicianship Luke has put into this. It will definitely prove useful for everyone now, and in the years to come.”

Meredith Dean Augustin
Director of Music Ministries
Church of St. Francis of Assisi, New York City
Commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the promulgation of The Roman Missal (1970), With One Spirit embarks on a significant investigation into the history of this text and the principles that impacted its development. In particular, Lamberts examines whether and how The Roman Missal encourages the active participation of the faithful in the liturgy demanded by the Second Vatican Council. Considering this pastoral and theological context, With One Spirit offers a commentary of the possibilities and limitations of the Missal’s encouragement of active participation, and formulates suggestions and improvements to realize true communal Eucharistic celebrations.

“Over the years much ink has been spilled over the interpretation of the term participatio actuosa. This book looks at the term critically within the context of Vatican II, most especially the Constitution on the Divine Liturgy. Prescinding from the stated aim of the Council that all the baptized have the right and duty to participate fully, consciously and actively in the liturgy, the author moves to the central point that the liturgy is an ecclesial event—a matter for the entire Church. The second part of the book gives good practical examples how this is achieved in the Eucharistic liturgy according to the Roman Missal. He reminds the reader that full, conscious and active participation is still one of the primary and enduring goals of the reformed liturgy envisaged by Vatican II.”

Michael S. Driscoll
Professor emeritus of liturgy and sacramental theology
University of Notre Dame
Words of Scripture. Symbols of faith. Do you ever wonder what they really have to do with you? Can they truly help to interpret human experiences and change hearts? Does the metaphor of life as a journey make sense to you? Mark A. Villano’s latest book offers a path into questions like these. Delve into the spiritual insights that have guided human beings for millennia in order to better appreciate the significance and power they hold. Discover more about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus, who meets us where we are and guides us along the diverse spiritual landscapes of life. The invitations of grace are all around us. We’re all called to participate in the life-changing mystery of Christ.

Consider this book as a daily “retreat,” an invitation to let go of the noise around us and to simply listen. See it as a travelling companion on the most important journey of our lives.

“Mark A. Villano has the extraordinary talent of writing in a way that captures the interest of those who desire to move closer to Christ. Journey to Jerusalem uses Scripture, personal stories, and reflections to help us prepare to meet the Lord with resurrected faith. Are you looking for a fuller, deeper life? Let this book be your companion.”

Ron Rolheiser, OMI, author of Sacred Fire: A Vision for a Deeper Human and Christian Maturity

“Villano has creatively crafted an enriching and nourishing companion. Journey to Jerusalem is both practical and inspiring. It is an invaluable resource for individual readers, ministry leaders, parish groups, teachers, catechists, young adults, clergy and more.”

Edith Prendergast, RSC, author of Grace Abounds: A Call to Awaken and Renew Your Faith
Biblical scholar and seasoned pilgrimage guide Stephen J. Binz offers an up-to-date handbook for experiencing the sites of the Holy Land as a disciple of Jesus. Whether contemplating future travel, on the road of pilgrimage, savoring memories of a past trip, or journeying in mind and heart from an armchair, readers will explore the nature of pilgrimage and encounter the places of the Holy Land from a biblical, historical, meditative, and prayerful perspective. This guide will enable Christians to walk in the footsteps of Jesus, confident that their pilgrimage will be both an educational journey and a transforming spiritual experience.

Holy Land Pilgrimage
Stephen J. Binz

“Stephen Binz’s book comes at a most opportune time. Few are better qualified than Stephen to lead us through the Holy Land in a way that brings out both history and spirituality that is applicable to our modern times today.”

John Michael Talbot, musician, author, and founder of The Brothers and Sisters of Charity, Little Portion Hermitage

“A marvelous guide for pilgrims to the Holy Land that combines history, personal reflection, and prayers and meditations designed for the holy sites. Stephen Binz’s inviting and accessible book will be a great asset to anyone wanting to explore the land often known as the Fifth Gospel.”

James Martin, SJ, author of Jesus: A Pilgrimage

In the Company of Jesus
Jon M. Sweeney

Fr. James Martin, SJ, is one of the most recognized Catholic priests in the United States. In this compelling narrative, award-winning writer Jon Sweeney probes Martin’s early life, his experiences as a corporate executive, his call to religious life, his ministry and spirituality, his feelings about both the adoration and the criticism he receives from so many, and much more. Readers will come away with a much better understanding of one of today’s most interesting and influential Catholics.

“In James Martin is one of the most important voices in Christian spirituality today and Jon Sweeney’s story of his life and his work will, I promise, make you want to be a better person. We need to define what Christian discipleship means in the present moment. This book will help you do that.”
Ronald Rolheiser, author of The Holy Longing and Domestic Monastery

Jon M. Sweeney is an independent scholar and one of religion’s most respected writers. His many books include The Pope Who Quit, which was optioned by HBO; and The Pope’s Cat, a popular fiction series for children. He edited A Course in Christian Mysticism by Thomas Merton, published by Liturgical Press. Sweeney writes regularly for America in the US, and The Tablet in the UK. He is the publisher at Paraclete Press in Massachusetts, and lives in Milwaukee, Wisconsin with his wife and daughters.

Theodore Hesburgh, CSC
Bridge Builder
Edward P. Hahnenberg

This new biography is the first to tell the story of the spirituality that shaped one of the twentieth century’s most distinguished public servants. It celebrates Fr. Theodore Hesburgh as a civil-rights hero, a visionary leader, and a consistent moral voice in tumultuous times. As a lifelong advocate for racial justice, Hesburgh spent his life bringing people together. This is a story to inspire all those who strive to live out their faith in the midst of a deeply divided world.

“Edward Hahnenberg tells Hesburgh’s rich story as a man of the center, mediating differences and seeking common ground and common goods. This book will help us to recover something of Father Ted’s hopeful American and Christian faith in God and one another.”
David J. O’Brien, Professor Emeritus, College of the Holy Cross

“Reading this elegant biography will make those of us who knew Father Ted miss him all the more, and those that never met him wish they had. Hesburgh’s unparalleled ability to build bridges across polarizing divides, so richly described by Hahnenberg, should prompt contemporary Americans both to admire his legacy—and to emulate his approach.”
Kathleen Sprows Cummings, Professor of American Studies and History, University of Notre Dame

Edward P. Hahnenberg holds the Jack and Mary Jane Breen Chair in Catholic Systematic Theology at John Carroll University. He is the author of Awakening Vocation: A Theology of Christian Call and Theology for Ministry: An Introduction for Lay Ministers, and coeditor of A Church with Open Doors: Catholic Ecclesiology for the Third Millennium published by Liturgical Press. He is a contributor to Give Us This Day.

Nicholas Black Elk
Medicine Man, Catechist, Saint
Jon M. Sweeney
Nicholas Black Elk, a traditional Holy Man of the Oglala Sioux, is revered among his Native people and those who continue to share his legacy as a beacon of hope, mystic, medicine man, and catechist. His journey reflects his lifelong search for spiritual truth and the desire to share his vision of unity and love for one another. More people than ever are now discovering this extraordinary man whose cause for canonization is now underway at the Vatican. This is his full story.

"Sweeney harnesses his gifts as a storyteller and puts Nicholas Black Elk where he belongs: with the greatest saints and mystics of the Christian tradition. A book for everyone, whether those looking for an introduction to Black Elk’s life or experts looking to see unseen facets of his witness."

Damian Costello, author of Black Elk: Colonialism and Lakota Catholicism, vice-postulator of the cause of canonization for Nicholas Black Elk

Seek the Living God
Five RCIA Inquiry Questions for Making Disciples
Nick Wagner

“Wagner’s question-asking model tailors the experience to the needs of the seeker, allowing the RCIA leader to become less of a Catholic ‘expert’ and more of a mentor or coach who helps guide the inquirer through their journey of gathering the information they need not only to join the Church, but to become lifelong disciples.”

Field Hospital Catechesis
The Core Content for RCIA Formation
Nick Wagner

“So often our contemporary Church is lured away from the wisdom of lived experience by the newest and shiniest ‘program’ on how to enliven our parishes. Nick starts with what the Church teaches, and he stays the course regarding his solid experience on presenting the richness of the RCIA process for changing hearts. Nick lays out the fact that the RCIA process is not about knowledge only, but about discipleship.”

In the Company of Jesus
Jon M. Sweeney

“Jon Sweeney’s story of James Martin’s life and his work will, I promise, make you want to be a better person. We need to define what Christian discipleship means in the present moment. This book will help you do that”
Ronald Rolheiser, author of The Holy Longing and Domestic Monastery

“Sweeney’s fastidious research and elegant prose make this a page turner I read with relish and finished with regret. It’s a gift to nonbelievers as well as Catholics, lapsed and devout.”
Mary Karr, poet and memoirist, author of The New York Times best sellers The Liars’ Club, Cherry, and Lit

Luke Macnamara, OSB, a monk of Glenstal Abbey, lectures in Scripture at St Patrick’s College, Maynooth.

Martin Browne, OSB, a monk of Glenstal and former headmaster of the Abbey school, is the Abbey bursar and liturgical master of ceremonies.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults
Ritual Edition
The first section of the ritual, marking the steps of the spiritual journey into the full communion of the Catholic Church, offers the procedures and periods that make up the full rite. The second section provides the necessary ritual for celebrating the rite in other forms. Ribbon markers and gold-stamped leather-like red cover make this ritual edition a handsome addition to the sanctuary.

When Other Christians Become Catholic
Paul Turner
“This is an excellent overview of the program that will help pastors to train those who teach or sponsor candidates in the program, or who would like to explain the historical basis for revival of the catechumenate program at the parish level. It should be read by pastors and be on the shelves of seminary libraries.”

Let Us Pray
A Guide to the Rubrics of Sunday Mass

Updated to Conform with the Revised English Translation of The Roman Missal

This edition, thoroughly updated by the author to be in full continuity with the revised English translation of The Roman Missal, will be one that priests, liturgical ministers, planners, and students will want to keep close at hand.

Paul Turner offers us a concise and accessible guide to the post-Vatican II eucharistic liturgy, replete with a great deal of historical information. This book should provide an excellent guide for parish liturgy committees and anyone interested in gaining a fuller understanding of what we do when we come together for Eucharist.

The Rites and Wrongs of Liturgy

Why Good Liturgy Matters
Thomas O’Loughlin
In this short book, Thomas O’Loughlin offers profound insights in a disarmingly colloquial argument, illustrated with recognizable scenes from inside and outside the church. Good liturgy, he tells us, says what it does and does what it says. The ten principles that expand this essential claim constitute a guide to excellent and joyful liturgical life, and a barometer for testing its truth and integrity.

Rites of Passage

Preaching Baptisms, Weddings, and Funerals
Guérric DeBona, OSB, David Scotchie, and Francis L. Agnoli
“This is a unique and comprehensive text—nothing of its kind exists—an outstanding work; a work that is long overdue, and one that is desperately needed. DeBona, Scotchie, and Agnoli are providing an essential tool for all of us who preside, officiate, and minister at baptisms, weddings, and funerals.”

A Season of Little Sacraments

Christmas Commotion, Advent Grace
Susan H. Swetnam
“While many books advise readers to swim upstream during Advent by not putting up the tree or not sending cards to family and friends until Christmas Eve, Susan Swetnam’s book takes a different approach, one that helps Catholics both embrace and reverently celebrate the craziness and the sacredness of the season.”

God’s Good Earth
Praise and Prayer for Creation
Anne and Jeffrey Rowthorn

God’s Good Earth offers Christians and their communities an engaging resource for prayer, reflection, and worship that reflects and nourishes their efforts to serve God and care for God’s creation. Compilers Anne and Jeffrey Rowthorn have prepared 52 beautiful, ready-made prayer services, each around a specific theme, drawing from a rich variety of ecumenical resources: psalms and other responsive readings, Scripture, hymns, prayers, and reflections from the world’s most engaging nature writers and interpreters of the social and cultural landscape. Each section can be used in full, or the user may select smaller sections; permission is granted to the purchaser to reproduce for use in public prayer.

Pastoral Liturgy

“A supremely important contribution to revealing the depth and breadth of the meaning of the liturgy as a communal event centered on the paschal victory of Christ. Taking the paschal triduum through the solemnity of Pentecost as its focus this commentary invites us to experience both death itself and passing over to new life again and again in Christ through the celebration of the liturgy.”

Proclaiming in a New Season
A Practical Guide to Catholic Preaching for the New Evangelization
Peter Lovrick
Foreword by Cardinal Thomas Collins

Preaching is an essential part of the life of the church. Preachers are called to proclaim the word of God—the Good News of salvation—in the church’s name. Since the Second Vatican Council, the popes have emphasized a vision of good preaching that meets the needs of the church and the people of God.

Easter Vigil Homilies
Jorge Mario Bergoglio/Pope Francis
“It is a rare gift to read a number of homilies preached on the same liturgical day-on the same theme but with differing approaches-offering succinct and yet profound considerations of the experience Jesus’ followers had when confronted by the empty tomb. This is a book to savor.”

Connecting Pulpit and Pew
Breaking Open the Conversation about Catholic Preaching
Karla J. Bellinger
“Bellinger has travelled the nation trying to crack the “loud silence” that exists between Catholic preachers and their parishioners, with a special attentiveness to youth. In this book, she reports her discoveries, but perhaps even more important, she shows us how to continue the conversation in our own communities. The discussion questions posed at the end of the book are—alone—worth the price of the whole. They promise to provoke meaningful conversations at the local level that could substantially bolster the quality of preaching in the U.S.”

Hail Mary,
Holy Bible
Sacred Scripture and the Mysteries of the Rosary
Clifford M. Yeary
“Clifford Yearly explores the divine mystery at work in the mysteries of Scripture remembered in the Rosary. Each of the twenty chapters clearly shows how biblical scholarship can nurture the faith of those who read, pray, teach or preach these mysteries. This is a short book that merits long pondering.”

A Pope Francis Lexicon
Edited by Cindy Wooden and Joshua J. McElwee; Foreword by Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew

“What I found most delightful about A Pope Francis Lexicon is that from these individual essays I learned not only about Francis’ characteristic use of language but the essayist’s own ‘take’ on what the Pope has to say. I strongly recommend the work, not only for those who already admire Pope Francis’ thought and action but perhaps especially for those who are being invited to conversion of heart and mind.”

Prayer & Spirituality
Important death penalty resources from the Catholic Mobilizing Network

Where Justice and Mercy Meet
Catholic Opposition to the Death Penalty
Vicki Schieber, Trudy D. Conway, and David Matzko McCarthy, editors; Foreword by Helen Prejean, CSJ

“Where Justice and Mercy Meet is an indispensable resource for professors, teachers, catechists, and prison and social justice ministers. Widely accessible, it maintains intellectual rigor as it witnesses to the ‘hopeful perseverance’ of Dorothy Day in the subversive joy of the Gospel. Take up this book in hopeful perseverance to end a practice that diminishes the humanity in and between all of us.”
American Catholic Studies

“Where Justice and Mercy Meet combines solid moral reflections on the death penalty with captivating stories of people caught up in this system. Both deeply interesting and educational, this book should reach a wide diversity of readers.”
Richard C. Dieter, Executive Director
Death Penalty Information Center
Washington, DC
978-0-8146-3508-7  Paperback, 248 pp., 6 x 9, $18.95

Death Penalty and Discipleship
A Faith Formation Guide
David Matzko McCarthy

“This text will serve as an invaluable resource for those seeking to engage in formation of conscience, both personally and communally, around the practice of capital punishment. Small faith communities, parishes, and adult faith formation programs will find it accessible, thoughtful, and well grounded in Scripture and the wisdom of ecclesial tradition.”
Margaret Pfeil
The University of Notre Dame

“Human dignity—that of the convicted as well as our own—is best served by not resorting to this extreme and unnecessary punishment. As Death Penalty and Discipleship: A Faith Formation Guide makes clear: Modern society has the means to protect itself without the death penalty.”
Archbishop Thomas Wenski
Archdiocese of Miami

Redemption and Restoration
A Catholic Perspective on Restorative Justice
Trudy D. Conway, David Matzko McCarthy, and Vicki Schieber, editors

“Written with the goals of educating about restorative justice and inspiring hope, this text is a great resource for readers who are just diving into the topic. Those connected to the criminal legal system, prison ministry groups, or justice-based parish book clubs will also find each chapter ripe with content for reflection.”
U.S. Catholic

“Those of us who work in the criminal justice environment know that it is broken, a system where issues of race, poverty, even geography, ensure that the playing field is anything but equal. We need to change how this system works if we are to end the warehousing and killing of our own citizens. That’s where restorative justice—and this book!—come in. Restorative justice is a powerful tool that transforms our understanding of crime and shifts our focus from ‘broken laws’ to damaged human relationships and the harm done to human dignity.”
Sr. Helen Prejean, CSJ
Author of Dead Man Walking and The Death of Innocents

978-0-8146-4561-1  Paperback, 312 pp., 6 x 9, $29.95

Harm, Healing, and Human Dignity
A Catholic Encounter with Restorative Justice
Adapted by Caitlin Morneau

“Harm, Healing, and Human Dignity provides an excellent description of restorative justice principles and examples of everyday applications. The reader will encounter an exceptionally understandable narrative, weaving Catholic social teaching and theology through examples of restorative justice stories while also offering relevant prayers and reflections. A must read for anyone interested in how restorative justice interfaces with one’s faith and values.”
Justice Janine Geske (Ret) Retired Distinguished Professor of Law at Marquette University Law School

“Harm, Healing, and Human Dignity allows the reader to come to a fuller understanding of how restorative justice and Catholic social teaching embrace one another in a way that leads to the creation of communities of hope. It helps us to see beyond the pain and trauma to the possibilities of a life that has meaning and purpose.”

Sex, Love, and Families
Catholic Perspectives
Edited by Jason King and Julie Hanlon Rubio
The authors of this collection—all lay, a mix of single and married, traditional and progressive Catholics—offer practical wisdom from and critical engagement with the Catholic tradition but avoid rehashing decades-old theological debates. Instead, their essays engage with and respond to realities shaping contemporary family life, like religious pluralism, technology, migration, racism, sex and gender, incarceration, consumerism, and the call to holiness. The result is a collection that envisions ways that families can be places of healing and love in and for the world.

“Sex, marriage, and family mores are changing radically. Whether you are celebrating or alarmed, you can learn from the realistic, hopeful, and impactful voices gathered here.”

Imagining Abundance
Fundraising, Philanthropy, and a Spiritual Call to Service
Kerry Alys Robinson
“This book is an indispensable tool for all fundraisers and philanthropists, as well as all charitable organizations, who seek to help those in need. Robinson brings a wealth of experience, a probing mind and a deep respect for the life of the spirit to her amazing work, and now to her beautiful book. Highly recommended.”

The Social Media Gospel
Sharing the Good News in New Ways
Second Edition
Meredith Gould
“Meredith Gould’s The Social Media Gospel is a go-to text for my course on digital media and ministry, and it has been very well received by students. Gould’s book makes the overwhelming not only accessible but enjoyable as she readily brings herself and her valuable practical experiences to this text. I am grateful for the second edition, which acknowledges the changing shape of our digital culture, even in two short years since the first book.”

Stewardship
Living a Biblical Call
Bernard F. Evans
“Stewardship: Living a Biblical Call is a ‘must’ read for any person wanting to understand the difference between raising money for secular organizations and raising money for the church. Bernie reminds us that Christian stewardship is not about ‘asking for money’ but rather about helping people understand their relationship to their money and moreover all the ‘gifts’ that God has given them. Bernie Evans reminds us that in the final analysis stewardship is an ‘act of worship’ to a God whose economy is one of ‘abundance’ not ‘scarcity.’”

When the Saints Came Marching In
Exploring the Frontiers of Grace in America
Kathy Coffey
“Coffey’s book will engage readers interested in American history, faith, and inspirational figures. What I appreciate most, though, is the book’s spirit of connection-between writer and reader-to North America, and to the communion of saints, which inspires us to be better people as we continue to encounter ever-new frontiers of grace.”

THE DEACON’S MINISTRY

“Insightful, accessible and engaging, this new work should be required reading for anyone with a serious interest in the diaconate—from men in formation to deacons, pastors and bishops. Significantly, Deacon Ditewig’s chapters on mercy and Pope Francis couldn’t be more timely or valuable—reminding us of what we are called to be. Superb.”
Deacon Greg Kandra
Blogger and Journalist

“Deacon Frederick Bauerschmidt deals in very practical terms with the multifaceted aspects of the deacon’s liturgical ministry, but also with the spirituality of his service. There is a superb balance struck between attending to the ‘situational awareness’ of the liturgy and the deacon’s prayerful participation. Quite simply, The Deacon’s Ministry of the Liturgy is splendid and I cannot recommend it highly enough.”
Deacon Owen F. Cummings
Mount Angel Seminary

“There is no such thing as ‘diaconal’ preaching, as distinct from presbyteral or lay preaching. But, as Cormier notes, there is a way in which the distinct experiences of the deacon—as a man of service among the marginalized—should shape his preaching. Using an abundance of clear and simple examples, mostly drawn from his own preaching, Cormier illuminates that way. Cormier shows how the deacon can ‘pass his life through the fire of thought’ in order to speak a relevant word for ordinary folk struggling to make sense of the Gospel in daily life.”

FR. JAMES MARTIN, SJ, is one of the most recognized Catholic priests in the United States. In this compelling narrative, award-winning writer Jon Sweeney, probes Martin’s early life, his experiences as a corporate executive, his call to religious life, his ministry and spirituality, his feelings about both the adoration and the criticism he receives from so many, and much more. Readers will come away with a much better understanding of one of today’s most interesting and influential Catholics.

See page 18 for more information.

“Aunny’s fastidious research and elegant prose make this a page turner I read with relish and finished with regret. It’s a gift to nonbelievers as well as Catholics, lapsed and devout.”
